

Ukulele Lady

1. I saw the splendor of the moonlight
On Hono..lu..lu Bay
There's something tender in the moonlight
On Hono..lu..lu Bay
And all the beaches are full of peaches
Who bring their "ukes" along
And in the glimmer of the moonlight
They love to sing this song;

Chorus:

If you like a Ukulele Lady
Ukulele Lady like-a-you
If you like to linger where it's shady
Ukulele Lady linger too
If you kiss a Ukulele Lady
While you promise ever to be true
And she see another Ukulele
Lady fool around with you;
Maybe she'll sigh - Maybe she'll cry -
Maybe she'll find somebody else, Bye and bye..
To sing to, when it's cool and shady
Where the tricky Wickie Wackies woo
If you like a Ukulele Lady
Ukulele Lady like-a-you.

2. She used to sing to me by moonlight
On Hono..lu..lu Bay
Fond mem'rys cling to me by moonlight
Although I'm far away
Someday I'm going
Where eyes are glowing
And lips are made to kiss
To see somebody in the moonlight
And hear the song I miss.

"Ukulele Lady" is a popular standard by Gus Kahn and Richard A. Whiting. Published in 1925, the song was first made famous by Vaughn De Leath. It was first recorded by The Paul Whiteman Orchestra with vocals by The Southern Fall Colored Quartet on June 12, 1925 and subsequently by Jim Kweskin and the Jug Band in 1965, Arlo Guthrie on his 1972 album Hobo's Lullaby and Kermit the Frog and Miss Piggy in the second season of The Muppet Show. I learned it from Jim Kweskin and the Jug Band.
