

Hell Up Coal Holler

The musical score for "Hell Up Coal Holler" is written in C Major and 2/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a C chord and ends with a C chord. The second staff starts with a G7 chord, features a first ending with a C chord and a triplet, and a second ending with a C chord. The third staff starts with a C chord, includes a G7 chord, and concludes with a first ending with a C chord. The fourth staff is a second ending with a C chord.

"Hell up Coal Holler", also known as "Hell Up Coal Creek Holler" is an old-time breakdown in C Major.

A "hell" is a dense thicket where cattle or other livestock can get lost.

A different tune by this name is in eastern Kentucky fiddler Ed Haley's repertoire.

It was printed in Phillips' Traditional American Fiddle Tunes (1994).

It was recorded by Dan Gellert, Adam Hurt and Gerry Milnes & Lorraine Lee.
