

The Hillside [1]

The musical score for "The Hillside [1]" is presented in E minor and 6/8 time. It is divided into two main sections, A and B. Section A consists of two staves of music. The first staff of A starts with a boxed 'A' and has a repeat sign. Chords are Em, Bm7, and D. The second staff of A has chords Em, Bm7, D, and a first/second ending for Em. Section B consists of two staves of music. The first staff of B starts with a boxed 'B' and has a repeat sign. Chords are Em and Bm7. The second staff of B has chords Em, Bm7, Em, Bm7, and a first/second ending for Em.

"The Hillside (1)" also known as "Joe Kennedy's Jig" is an English jig in E Minor. The parts are played AABB.

This jig is English and not Irish, so I have placed it in the Tunes section and not the Irish or Celtic sections.

It is similar to the Southwestern Pennsylvania tune called simply "Quadrille" that was collected from John Kubina, (near) Davistown, Pennsylvania, September 3, 1943 by Samuel Bayard.

It was printed in Raven's English Country Dance Tunes (1984) and Cole's 1000 Fiddle Tunes (1940).
