

John Newgrant Come Home with a Pain in His Head

The image displays a musical score for the tune "John Newgrant Come Home with a Pain in His Head". The score is written in treble clef, D major, and 6/8 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with a D chord and ends with an A7 chord. The second staff contains several measures with D, G, D, A7, D, and D chords. The third staff continues with A7, G, and D chords. The fourth staff concludes with A7 and D chords. The melody is a double jig, characterized by its rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes.

"John Newgrant Come Home With a Pain in His Head" is an American double jig in D Major. The parts are played AB.

Bayard (1944) believed this tune to be from Irish tradition, although he could not trace it. He believed the name may come from a fiddler's rhyme attached to the tune but did not record any rhyme for it. The notated version was collected from Mrs. Sarah Armstrong of Derry, Pennsylvania in 1943 by Samuel Bayard.

It was printed in Bayard's Hill Country Tunes (1944).
