"Muddy Water" is also known as "Durroch's Hornpipe". It was printed in Bayard's Hill Country Tunes (#43) . He collected it from Sarah Armstrong on November 18, 1943.

Bayard once thought this tune was a 4/4 make-over of a 6/8 double jig "The Walls of Lisscarroll" but later (1981) reconsidered that it was rather a version of the Pennsylvania tune "Durroch's Hornpipe" (derived from the Irish "O'Dwyer's Hornpipe").

Sarah Armstrong (1883 - 1957) contributed 37 of the 95 tunes in Hill Country Tunes making her the most prolific source.

Other Sarah Armstrong tunes in this collection are:

- "MacDonahue's Hornpipe"
- "Maggots in the Sheep Hide"
- "Patty on the Turnpike"
- "The Snouts and Ears of America"
- "Sarah Armstrong's Tune".
